

Snow and Ice Removal

The County is responsible for snow and ice removal on all county roads. The respective townships are responsible for snow and ice removal on all township roads. Accepted subdivisions are the responsibility of the township in which they are located. Subdivisions under construction are the responsibility of the developer. Please contact the appropriate authority dependent on your location.